Objectives

Sinai College will implement and comply with the Child Safe Standards and understand they may be required to give an authorised officer of the Queensland Family and Child Commission (QFCC) information about the school's compliance. In implementing and complying with the Child Safe Standards, Sinai College will provide an environment that promotes and upholds the right to cultural safety of students who are Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islander persons (the Universal Principle). The school will have regard to Guidelines made by the QFCC in implementing and complying with the Child Safe Standards and Universal Principle⁴.

As per the Guidelines, this policy outlines the ways in which Sinai College actions and prioritises the safety and wellbeing of students. Rules and expectations regarding student safe practices are outlined for staff, volunteers and community members with the aim of establishing a student safe environment⁵.

This policy will:

- Set out the school's expectations, practices, and approaches in relation to each of the Child Safe Standards, including the Universal Principle
- Be displayed for public access on the school's website and at the school's office
- Cover acceptable and unacceptable student to student, and student to adult interactions
- Describe the school's commitment to equity, inclusion and cultural safety and how the organisation recognises, responds and respects these factors.

Principles

The implementation of, and compliance with, the Child Safe Standards and Universal Principle by Sinai College are to be based on the following fundamental principles:

- (a) Child safe entity's, including Sinai College, are responsible for continuously improving the ways in which, in their operations—
 - (i) the safety of children is promoted; and
 - (ii) child abuse is prevented; and
 - (iii) allegations of child abuse are properly responded to;⁶
- (b) The Child Safe Standards are not a simple checklist. They encourage child safe entities to think about how their day-to-day work protects children's rights and safety.⁷

Responsibilities

Sinai College is responsible for developing and implementing this Student Safety and Wellbeing Policy and related policies and procedures to ensure it fulfils its CSS and Universal Principle obligations.
